MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: [REDACTED]

In a conversation with [REDACTED] on 30 December 1947, I informed him that unless he failed to develop as fast as I expected him to, it was my plan that he would depart for [REDACTED] prior to 1 April 1948.

[REDACTED] approached me on one other problem and that is that he had been offered another job in the Army as a major, and he wanted to know how I would feel toward him if he should take it. I told him that naturally I would be disappointed since I had waited these several months to get him on duty and that obviously I would be back where I started from insofar as filling the existing vacancy in [REDACTED] is concerned, but that if he desired to take the other job, I would offer no objection since I was not interested in having personnel on duty with [REDACTED] who were not entirely happy about the situation and unqualifiedly interested in their job. [REDACTED] stated that he would discuss this situation with his wife and would let me know in a day or two.
